

PRINCIPLES FOR PARTNERSHIPS BETWEEN COMMUNITIES AND COLLEGES

1. Shared goal – Practitioner education for community change, responding to community needs and priorities
2. Partnerships of practitioners and educators with parity and respect for different sources of knowledge; “Inreach” as well as outreach
3. Recruitment from the neighborhoods, tailored support for students
4. Mix of “knowledge” and “skills”, “theory” and “practice”, critical thinking, strategic and practical competencies
5. Combining classroom and experiential education with reflective practice
6. Practitioners and academics leading the learning

PRINCIPLES FOR PARTNERSHIPS BETWEEN COMMUNITIES AND COLLEGES

1. Shared goal -- practitioner education for community change
2. Partnership formalized in agreement of low-income community, practitioners and colleges
3. Recruiting students from the community and tailoring courses and systems of support for those students
4. Practitioners and academics leading the learning, respecting and using different sources of knowledge
5. Developing “knowledge” and “skills”, “theory” and “practice”, values, critical thinking, strategic and practical competencies
6. Combining classroom and experiential education with reflective practice